PENINSULA

THE SCENE STEALER

That chandelier. It's 66 metres long - the longest in the Southern Hemisphere (not that we're comparing) and it's guaranteed to impress the most discerning of guests.

Inspired by London's Tate Modern Museum, the space features 9 metre high ceilings, floor to ceiling windows and a sophisticated neutral colour palette ready to be stamped with your own personal style.

The possibilities are endless. If you have big ideas or wild dreams this space is where we can make them happen. With a capacity to seat 1480 guests, this space is one of the largest in Victoria. But don't be intimidated by the size; while Peninsula is expansive, it still retains a welcoming elegance.

MAIÀ

THE TREND SETTER

Pared back, rustic and striking. MAIÀ is the perfect union of the modern and the historic. It's industrial without being cold. Raw but still sophisticated.

With original loading doors, hand etched wooden floorboards, and a cathedral style ceiling, the space is equally impressive when left pared back as it is when styled.

The perfect balance of old and new makes this space adaptable and complimentary to all grand plans.

SUMAC

THE CHARISMATIC CREATURE

Rich, warm, and inviting. Sumac blends modern design with a Moroccan influence and sweeping curtains to create a sense of intimacy in a large space.

With hand-etched floorboards, rich metal latticework and splashes of fuchsia, this is a venue that transforms, easily adapting to many different styles and tastes.

The intimate space is ambient and charismatic. Whether a formal sit down dinner or luxe cocktail extravaganza, this venue will showcase your vision perfectly.

THE LOVER OF LUXURY

As decadent as a black forest chocolate cake and just as lavish. Sketch is unquestionably a memorable venue. Rich purple and black tones give the space a distinctly dramatic feel, while crystal chandeliers from Milan and crockery and cutlery from Spain emphasize that no expense has been spared.

Views? This venue has one you should see. Located at the end of the historic Dockland's runway, Central Pier, floor to ceiling windows offer a stunning outlook over the water towards the city.

GARDENS HOUSE

THE NATURAL BEAUTY

Built in 1854, this natural beauty is enchanting with her polite values and sophisticated allure.

The private property is renowned for its raw splendour with close proximity to the CBD. Strolling up the narrow garden path, surrounded by precisely manicured plants and foliage, guests are welcomed to the double storey property by a brilliant heritage façade and sprawling garden. From within, this historical homestead has been transformed to accommodate the most lavish of celebrations, intimate soirées or secluded corporate retreats.

A second storey balcony, spanning the width of the house, looks out to yet another generous and breathtaking private garden.

Complete with numerous rooms of varying sizes, this property offers formal seated dining, black tie cocktail, alfresco events and scenic ceremony backdrops.

THE ATLANTIC

THE CAPTAIN

An ocean to plate philosophy inspires everything we do. Every morning, The Atlantic team hand-picks an unrivalled selection of wild and sustainable fish, unique oyster varieties and pristine shellfish to bring to today's menu.

Executive Chef, Nick Mahlook, has created a series of menus designed to rouse the senses; from the oyster bar and à la carte, through to the private dining degustation menus. This harvest is complemented by carefully sourced produce from Australia's best local and specialist suppliers.

Some may think it obsessive to hunt for the perfect ingredient. For The Atlantic, it is a necessity.

Let us transport you back to the famous New York meat packing district, with the hustle and bustle of the fish markets adding interest and flavour to your vision. Now add an uncompromising focus on excellence, the selection of only the very best in fresh produce, and the oceans strongest culinary captain, Nick Mahlook.

It is this spirit that infuses every aspect of The Atlantic, from its design and ambiance, to service and cuisine; all perfected in a magnificent waterfront location.

Exclusive Events:
The Atlantic is warm and inviting with a mixture of dark tones, earthy textures and elegant fixtures.

Perfect for weddings, cocktail parties and lavish soirees, the various nooks and intimate private dining areas can be transformed to cater to an exclusive event spanning the restaurant in its entirety.

Cosy and elegant, the water facing Terrace will provide guests with stunning scenery of the Southbank Riverwalk and city silhouette.
